Please provide and attach the following documentation

1. Official copy of SAT or ACT scores with Percentile Rank.
2. Letter of acceptance from an accredited 4-year college in the United States
3. Letter from applicant's high school showing Class Rank and Grade Point Average
4. Proof of age (birth certificate, driver's license, or high school records)

How CCU will determine the winners:

Each applicant will receive a score in each the following categories:

1. SAT/ACT Combined Score Percentile Rank (raw score to be used only to break a tie between two students with the same percentile ranking)
2. Class Rank
3. Grade Point Average
4. Length of membership as a percentage of age

The applicant with the highest ranking in each category receives a 1, the next highest a 2 etc.
The score of each applicant in each category is added together and the applicant with the lowest score is the winner. A tie is broken in favor of the applicant with the lowest score in the categories in the order above.
The scholarships will be announced on 6/8/2021 with the scholarship awarded by the time the scholarship winners matriculate into the U.S. accredited 4-year college.
